

Assistant Preschool Teacher

Hallie Q. Brown Community Center

Since 1929 Hallie Q. Brown Community Center has provided critical services and a gather place for residents of the Summit-University neighborhood. The Center hosts an early childhood education program, programs for senior citizens, a food shelf, a clothing shelf, and is the home of the world-renowned Penumbra Theater.

What will you do?

- Develop positive relationships with students and parents
- Maintain a safe and healthy environment
- Plan activities, teach, and assists in all areas of the program according to the goals and objectives set by the lead teacher and/or director.
- Work with the lead teacher to ensure a consistent program.
- Work patiently children in their initial attempts at learning.
- Observe and report to the lead teacher the emotional, physical, intellectual, and social development of each child.

Position requirements:

- Associates degree or equivalent in early childhood development. CDA in Early Childhood Development preferred.
- Licensing and Certifications: CPR and Meet all applicable licensing regulations.
- Work Experience: 1+ years of Child Care Center or related experience required.
- Must be able to stand, walk, squat, bend, twist and sit on the floor.

Who would like this job?

This is a great opportunity for someone who loves kids, and is also

- Patient
- Caring
- Keeps calm in changing situations
- Is committed to building community
- Likes to be physically active

Resumes may be emailed to hr@hallieqbrown.org or dropped off at the front desk.