

The Retired Men's Club meets twice a month at Hallie Q. Brown Community Center. The meetings are the first and third Thursday of each month in the early afternoon.

The club activities include:

- 1) Getting together twice a month to enjoy fellowship over a meal;
- 2) Celebrating birthdays;
- 3) Helping to provide resources for the HQB Food Shelf;
- 4) Helping fellow club members in need;
- 5) Going on short trips;
- 6) Providing an annual college scholarship to an area high school senior;
- 7) Helping with various projects at HQB; and
- 8) Playing cards.

The club motto is: "Have a Nice Day" - which reflects the positive nature of the club members.

There is a destiny that makes us brothers
No one goes his way alone
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own

—Charles Markham, American poet
(1852-1940)

Mission-This body is formed to serve the retired men in the community; giving them a social outlet for fellowship with men from various vocations; to enjoy the evening of their lives with exchange of ideas; to relate experiences; to discuss issues current to the day; and support the community in its effort to improve the quality of life.

Revised 2/2018

Hallie Q. Brown Retired Men's Club

"A Friendly Club"

A Friend Is:

A PUSH when you're stopped
A WORD when you're lonely;
A GUIDE when you're searching
A SMILE when you are sad;
A SONG when you're glad.

Retired Men's Club

The Hallie Q. Brown Retired Men's Club is a social organization that meets twice a month on Thursdays at the Hallie Q. Brown Community Center to connect socially as well as discuss relevant issues of the day.

The club was started in 1960. Some of the members are former patrons, staff, volunteers or board members of the Center, and all have or have had roots in Saint Paul and the broader Twin Cities community.

"Everyone can be great because everyone can serve."
